

University Governance

California Lutheran University was formally incorporated on Aug. 4, 1959. The governing bodies of the University are the Convocation, the Board of Regents, the President's Cabinet and the Faculty.

President's Cabinet

The President's Cabinet is the senior executive and administrative body of the University. Under the direction of the president, it is responsible for policy making, strategic planning and implementation, budget, and ensuring that institutional energies and resources are focused on accomplishing the mission and vision of the University.

The President's Cabinet consists of the President, the five divisional vice presidents including the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, the Vice President for University Advancement, the Vice President for Administration and Finance, the Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students, the Vice President for Enrollment Management and Marketing. The Cabinet also includes a University Director of Church Relations, the Special Assistant to the President for Diversity, Associate Vice President for University Relations, the Special Assistant to the President for Athletic Affairs and the General Manager for KCLU Radio.

Board of Regents

The 32-member Board of Regents directs the administration through its policy-making role, safeguards the mission and assets of the University, authorizes budgets and strategic plans, elects the president of the University, and approves the appointment of chief administrative officers and faculty.

Convocation

The 85-person Convocation, which ratifies the election of the University's Board of Regents, represents the corporation of California Lutheran University. The Convocation is made up of members of the five synods of Region II of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, faculty, students, the university president and members-at-large. Convocators serve as ambassadors, counselors, recruiters and development support for the University throughout a broad geographic area on the Pacific Coast and in the Southwestern region of the United States.
