Doctorate in Higher Education Leadership Ed.D.

The Ed.D. program in Higher Education Leadership is designed for leaders and administrators of colleges and universities (public and private, two-year and four-year, nonprofit and proprietary) who desire to enhance their abilities and position themselves for heightened leadership roles in a wide range of professional service areas (including student affairs, academic leadership, institutional advancement, athletic administration, or institutional assessment).

The purpose of the Ed.D. in Higher Education Leadership is to prepare reflective, principled leaders for higher education who:

- Understand the individual, organizational, and societal dynamics that affect college students and their success;
- Are effective in leading positive organizational change; and
- Are actively engaged in the national and international conversations surrounding the critical issues affecting higher education.

Program Outcomes

Reflective, principled Educational Leadership doctoral program graduates will be leaders who contribute to student success by:

- Modeling moral and ethical practice;
- Leading organizational change in a diverse society;
- Establishing a caring and collaborative learning community;
- Supporting the principles of teaching and learning;
- Utilizing the principles of effective administration and technology;
- Evaluating the individual, organizational and societal contexts of education;
- Designing research that addresses educational issues.

Admission to the Doctoral Program in Higher Education Leadership

Applicants for admission to the Ed.D. Program in Higher Education Leadership should submit all application materials by January 15 for priority consideration for admission to the next summer term. Admission decisions for regular graduate standing are based on a review of the following items in the candidate’s portfolio:

1. A completed application form and non-refundable application fee
2. Official transcripts showing a master’s degree in education or a related field from a regionally accredited U.S. institution
3. Test scores from the Graduate Record Examination (GRE)
4. A personal statement explaining student’s reasons for seeking an Ed.D. in Educational Leadership
5. Three letters of recommendation
6. A professional resume
7. A writing sample (e.g., chapter from thesis, article, paper or report)

When the application is complete the file will be reviewed and the candidate may be invited to interview with the doctoral degree admission committee.

Note: International applicants must submit the following:

1. An International Student Application Form and additional required documents
2. GRE and TOEFL scores if undergraduate work was completed at other than a regionally accredited U.S. institution
