In accordance with the mission of CLU, the Graduate School of Education seeks to develop reflective, principled educators who STRIVE to:

- Serve as moral leaders
- Think critically to connect theory with practice
- Respect all individuals
- Include and respond to the needs of all learners
- Value diversity
- Empower participation in educational growth and change

Design of the Programs

California Lutheran University has designed graduate programs in education so candidates can complete a master's or doctoral degree and an advanced credential concurrently. Credential programs meet all requirements established by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC). Requirements for completion of the degree and the credential may not be exactly the same. Candidates may choose to complete a master's or doctoral degree apart from a credential (except for the Master of Education, which must be completed in conjunction with the preliminary teaching credential) and vice versa. Undergraduate students seeking a basic teaching credential may include graduate course work in their program. Advisers will help to determine under what circumstances this may be possible.

Accreditation

The Graduate School of Education at California Lutheran University is accredited by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC). All credential programs are approved by the CTC.
