Courses of Instruction

Contents

- Accounting
- American Sign Language
- American Studies
- Art
- Asian Studies
- Biochemistry and Molecular Biology
- Biological Sciences
- Business Administration
- Chemistry
- Chinese
- Communication
- Computer Information Systems
- Computer Science
- Creative Writing
- Criminology and Criminal Justice
- Dance
- Earth and Environmental Science
- Economics
- Education
- English
- Environmental Science
- Environmental Studies
- Ethnic Studies
- Ethnic and Race Studies
- Exercise Science
- Film and Television
- Financial Planning
- French
- Gender and Women's Studies
- Geography
- Geosciences
- German
- Global Business
- Global Studies
- Greek
- Hebrew
- History
- History Pedagogy
- Honors
- Innovation and Entrepreneurship
- Interdisciplinary
- Languages and Cultures
- Learning Resources
- Legal Studies
- Liberal Studies in Education
- Marketing Communication
- Mathematics
Courses of Instruction

• Mathematics for Teaching
• Multimedia\(^1\)
• Music\(^1\)
• Music Production
• Philosophy\(^1\)
• Physics\(^1\)
• Political Science\(^1\)
• Psychology\(^1\)
• Public Health\(^2\)
• Religion and Theology\(^1\)
• Science (Applied Scientific Computing)\(^2\)
• Sociology\(^1\)
• Spanish\(^1\)
• Sports Management\(^1\)
• TESOL\(^2\)
• Theatre Arts\(^1\)
• Theology and Christian Leadership\(^1\)
• University\(^3\)
• Visual Arts\(^3\)

\(^1\) Minor also offered
\(^2\) Minor only offered
\(^3\) Non Major/Minor

System of Course Descriptions

Courses of study and their descriptions are arranged according to course numbers within their departments.

The following classification system identifies a course as 1st year, sophomore, junior or senior level. 1st Year and sophomore courses are in the lower division; junior and senior courses are in the upper division.

The course value in semester credits is indicated within parentheses after the course title.

Course Numbering System

• Courses numbered 01-99
  designate preparation courses not applicable to degree credit.

• Courses numbered 100-199
  are usually taken by 1st year students.

• Courses numbered 200-299
  are usually taken by sophomores.

• Courses numbered 300-499
  are upper division courses normally taken by juniors and seniors. A 1st year or sophomore may take upper division courses with consent of the instructor.

• Courses numbered 500-599
  are graduate level courses.

• Courses numbered 600-799
  are doctoral level courses.

• Courses numbered 800-899
  are professional development

• Courses numbered 900-999
  are Continuing Education Units (CEU).

• Teaching Credential: Contact the School of Education or the appropriate department adviser for a complete list of courses needed to fulfill subject matter requirements for a Multiple Subject or Single Subject Credential.